Modulus

As one year passes and another comes into view, we invite you to come with us into our 1956 Modulus and let our memories etch in the scenes of the past year for you.
Here you may step into our classrooms, view our extra-curricular activities, and see the various clubs of our Alma Mater.
Come along then, and watch the unfolding of events for the 1955-56 school year at Huntington High School.

HIGH SCHOOL HUNTINGTON STYLE

For 38 years Huntington High School has stood as a memorial to the efforts of generations of people with limited educational opportunities but great forsight. Our school, as well as every school, owes its origin to people who looked into the future and saw a country with an abundance of schools where men might be educated to be good leaders, good neighbors, and good stewards of the privileges and responsibilities to a free country and a gracious God.

We are proud of our founders — Franklin, Dewey, and Mann. And we're proud of our school too. We look with pleasure upon the wide halls and stairways, the spacious cafeteria and lovely auditorium, and our radio center. We are glad for the fact that we have good teachers and are rated as one of the first class school systems in Indiana. diana.

We like the activities and clubs that are sponsored by the school. In them we have found constructive outlets for our energies. We appreciate the high standards which our Alma Mater holds.

We also wish to pay tribute to our school because it has taught us many things — things not always found in a textbook. It has put within us the makings of good citizens for tomorrow and has helped form our characters by teaching us reverence, respect, tolerance, and straight thinking.

Aside from the family and church the school does more than any other institution to influence our decisions and thus mold our lives for the future. We are glad then to have had such a school as Huntington High School to influence us and mould us and help us to "increase in wisdom, and stature, and in favor with God and man."

In soft vibration sighs the whispering lute,
Tang goes the harpsicord, too-too the flute,
Brays the loud trumpet, squeaks the fiddle sharp,
Winds the French-horn, and twangs the tingling harp;
Till, like great Jove, the leader figuring in,
Attunes to order the chaotic din.

Delmar Weesner, Director

WEESNER'S 30th SUCCESSFUL YEAR

Delmar Weesner, in his 30th year of directing at Huntington High School, has once again, proved his ability by producing a first class band.

Dressed in snappy uniforms of red and gray, the band presented colorful half-time shows for the football fans with their precision marching and clever routines. The band was led onto the field by our whistle-blowing drum major, Phil Kriegbaum. This was Phil's second consecutive year as drum major and he has done a splendid job. Those high-stepping majorettes you saw in red and black outfits were Judy Musser and Mary Jo Poehler. These girls spent a great deal of time working with the band and are to be commended for their excellent performances.

The band also played during our "Hoosier Madness" season. We all enjoyed hearing the current popular and jazz tunes they played at the basketball games.

In September the band journeyed to Purdue University where they participated in the annual High-School Band Day. Over one hundred bands took part in the half-time show of the Purdue-College of the Pacific football game. Our majorettes also took part in a show which was presented before the game.

No one really knows how many tedious hours are spent in preparing music for these events. Practices of the various sections of the band are often held during the noon hour in order to perfect the pieces.

This year we felt very fortunate to have members of our band receive high honors in both the District and State Solo and Ensemble Contests, held in Fort Wayne and Indianapolis, respectively, during the month of February. Those receiving such honors were: David Winegardner and Stephen Michael, cornet solos; Phil Kriegbaum, French horn solo; Shirley Guthier, Clarice Williams, Donna Safford, and Judy Grim, clarinet quartet; Margaret Frederick, Becky Underhill, Judy Wood, and Deborah Kirkwood, clarinet quartet No. 2; Cynthia McClure, Joanna Allen, Gail Kirkpatrick, and Judy Jersey, flute quartet; and Gene Kline, Ned Solloway, and Carolyn Shearer, cornet trio No. 2. These students all received the rating of Superior or Excellent in the state contest.

On April 14th the band participated in the state band contests, held at South Bend. In this contest they played three pieces of their own selection and also took part in a sight-reading contest. In this section, they are judged as to their ability to play a piece well at sight. Our band was rated superior in both the above—the only school in the county to receive such a rating.

Besides these activities, the band also gave the annual Spring concert on May 6 for which they played a variety of numbers that they had been working on during the year, gave informal concerts at public grade schools, and played for the commencement exercises on May 17th.

All of this adds up to a very busy year for Mr. Weesner and his fine band. Our congratulations to them!

One of the outstanding features of H. H. S. is the A Capella choir under the direction of Mr. Cloyde Slater.

Composed of 66 members the choir contains several small-ensembles. The girls' sextet included Brema Altman, Shirley Guthier, Carol McClurg, Shirley Coy, Judy Powell, and Bonnie Keith. Linda Ware, Jean Carroll, Edith Winterholter, Ruth Farhnow, Nancy McBride, Gerda Rasche, Ann Morris, Margaret Haneline, Jean Ann Biehl, Sondra Terrel, Judy Fouts, Ralene Newhard, and Barbara Dickey make up the girls' double sextet. Not all the special sections are girls' groups. One boys' quartet had Robert Petrie, Don Bosh, John North, and Roger Weist as its members. The second boys' quartet consisted of Philip Young, David Gerdes, Richard Bealer, and Keith Powell.

As a new and very successful feature of the vocal music department Mr. Slater has introduced the Swing Choir. This group lends their voices almost entirely to swing music.

Members are accepted in the choir on the basis of voice quality and according to the number of members needed in each section. They usually have had a year of training chorus work and are taken out of the Freshman chorus. All music must be memorized — a big job in itself — and grades are determined accordingly.

OUTSTANDING CHORAL GROUPS

In keeping with the school colors the choir robes are red with a black stole and red "H H S" embroidered on it. Boys wear white shirts and black ties and the girls wear white blouses.

Probably one of the busiest organizations of the school is the choir. An announcement familiar to everyone is: "This announcement concerns the choir. Meet at . . ."—always going somewhere it seems. Hunting a lost robe in a frenzied panic, handing out pass slips to be signed by teachers, arriving for appearances just in the nick of time—all these, nerve-racking though they may seem, are a part of the life of the choir.

The public appearances which the choir makes each year number about 16. Programs are given at the grade schools—Riley, Horace Mann, Central, and Lincoln. The choir were guests at Huntington College for a performance. They also provided the music for both the unified Good Friday Service and the Easter Service at school.

On April 27 the group traveled to Warsaw where they presented a program. For the final appearance of the year and one of the most important—to seniors at least—the choir provided music for the Baccalaureate service.

Lending her talents to the choir was Mara Jane Carter, accompanist.

To the choir's patient instructor, Mr. Cloyde Slater, goes much of the credit for the skill and talent of this group. Working with minds is one thing but working with voices is entirely different. As Mr. Slater has sung with several professional groups, he is able by his own experiences to keynote the entire musical program to a goal of perfection.

In the district and state vocal contests our choir was very well represented with Sondra Terrel, Ralene Newhard, and the Girls' Sextette—winning Superior ratings. In the state contest Sondra Terrel received an Excellent rating and the Sextette again came through with a Superior rating. This shows the fine work done by Mr. Slater.

For most people, memorizing piece after piece of music and practicing for hours would be a tedious and tiresome job. It becomes that way for the choir at times, too. They know, however, that soft tones, good enunciation, and controlled breathing—all of which make for really good music—are not born of haphazard practices. Congratulations to this group of students and their director. We're proud of their talent and the deserving appreciation which they are shown by other groups.

Cloyde Slater, Director

UNTINGTON HIGH SCHOOL

HUNTINGTON LEAGUE OF NATIONS

The American Field Service is a non-profit organization whose international scholarships have, since 1947, brought 2,354 teenagers from European, Asian, and South American countries to the United States to study in our high schools and be a part of our families for a year. The students live with average American families and fit into the home and community life.

This year Marty Lendin came from Stockholm, Sweden, to live with Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Miller, Sarah, and John. Her pleasing personality created a constant demand for her as a speaker. Coupled with almost 40 ambassador talks about herself, Sweden, and A. F. S., she found time to serve as Craft Committee chairman of Sunshine Society and rank very high scholastically in school. She could always be seen at basketball games cheering the Vikes and knitting at the same time. When asked how she liked America, Marty said: "I don't like it, I love it!"

The European returnees who had lived in this country for a year wished to do something in return, so they made available the summer scholarships for American teenagers. Susanne Schilling was awarded the scholarship for the summer of 1955. She stayed with families in Geleen and The Hague, Holland. Susanne shared her experiences in over 55 talks not only in our community but also in many surrounding towns. Susie was elected Indiana Chairman of the A. F. S. by the exchange students. The outstanding event of the year was "International Day" held at Huntington High School to encourage other high schools in the state to participate in the American Field Service Exchange Student Prográm. Mr. Stephen Galatti, New York City, Director-General of the A. F. S. was the speaker and discussion leader of the day.

The entire program succeeds, we believe, in its purpose of promoting understanding between the peoples of the world.

The major work of the American Field Service Committee in Huntington has been the raising of $650 for an exchange student next year plus $100 as a gift to the American summer exchange student.

The fund was raised this year by the high school students who purchased "Share the Fare" bonds, an Eiffel Plasterer Bubble Show, and the receipts of speeches made by Marty and Susanne.

The Committee also arranges for homes for the exchange student and handles the applications of our students for the summer scholarships.

Miss Ruth Luther, in her fifth year as Committee Chairman, was assisted by the following people in directing the year's activities: Mrs. Everett Houser, Mrs. C. O. Porter, Mrs. Gerald Miller, Mrs. Wilbur Lockhart, Mr. Harold Johnson, Doctor Wayne Paulen, Marty Lendin, Susanne Schilling, and student council officers and members.

Thespians have new mentor

With "Speech for Use" as its motto Masque and and Gavel has been in its 15th year of operation at Huntington High School.

The aims of the organization are: to foster more individual participation in speech activities; to create proficiency in competition; and to expand the high school speech program to include diversified dramatic participation.

The officers for 1955-56 were: Kent Owen, President; Hoyt Brown, Vice-president; and Cynthia McClure, Secretary-treasurer.

The meetings held in the school on the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of the month were under the direction of Mr. Maurice Imhoff who served as club advisor in his first year at H. H. S.

The activities of Masque and Gavel included participation in the Indiana Student Legislative Assembly at which Kent Owen won his third "Outstanding Legislative Award."

Masque and Gavel also sent students to the Ball State Drama Festival where they received four excellent ratings. Those in the cast receiving the outstanding award for "DUST OF THE ROAD" were Sallie Crews, Peter Strodel, Kent Owen, and Hoyt Brown.

Members also attended the Indiana State Forensic League contests in radio and original oratory.

The final event of the year was a Roman Banquet.

G.A.A. winds up interesting year

The highlight of the year was the G. A. A. banquet held on April 9. The guest speaker, Dr. Roxy Lefforge, former missionary to China, spoke on the subject "Life As a Game." Awards were presented to the girls by the physical education teacher and sponsor of G. A. A., Miss Ruth Luther. Bonnie Kieth, Sally Perrin, and Dede Williams received "H"'s for earning 250 points. Forty-four girls won yoeman and bowman national archery certificates, and six girls were presented with national bowman pins. Fourteen girls were pinned and initiated into the club at this banquet. The five girls winning the highest honor of G. A. A., the state wall plaque for 350 points in activities and achievement tests were Sally Perrin, Susan Hudson, Dorothy Wendel, Marna Emley, and Bonnie Kieth.

ACTUARIAE, KEEPERS OF THE BOOKS AND STACKS

Where is the German dictionary? Is the marriage book by Landis in? These are two of the questions asked the members of Actuariae every day.

An organization composed of student librarians, the purpose of Actuariae is to make the library a more useful tool to the students. The members give aid in securing reading materials as well as gain experience for themselves in cataloging books and keeping the library in order.

This organization is sponsored by Miss Carolyn Reynolds. The officers for 1955-56 were President, Sarah Miller; Vice-President, Barbara Dickey; and Secretary-Treasurer, Patricia Bellam.

The social events included a Christmas party, caroling, and, the high-point of the year, the annual Tea in May, honoring the mothers of the Actuariae members. The tea, very beautiful with decorations done in the theme April Showers was attended by over 30 faculty women and mothers. A book review was given by Rosalind Howett, and solos were sung by Judy Powell and Barbara Dickey.

REPRESENTATIVES OF STUDENT THOUGHT

The student council is a representative group of students serving in an advisory capacity and sponsoring various projects which benefit the student body.

Two students elected by each home room serve as representatives on the Council. These representatives meet twice monthly under the leadership of Mr. Johnson to discuss school affairs.

The 1955-56 officers were: Jerry Dolby, President; Jack Flaugher, Vice-president; Sue Kiefer, Secretary; and Art Stonebraker, Treasurer.

Perhaps the most important function of the Council is its work in co-operation with the American Field Service. Each year the Council sponsors projects to raise funds for the purpose of bringing a foreign exchange student to H. H. S. This year in addition to selling Viking Book Covers and sponsoring Plasterer's Bubble Show, the Council also sponsored a "Share the Fare" program. By buying $.25 and $1.00 shares, many people thus helped to "share the fare" of the foreign student who will come to H. H. S. next year.

Row V: Diana Stouder, Judy Knight, David Arlington, Carol Abbott, Eleanor Winkelman, Charlotte Gressley, Dianne Guest, John Beerbower.

The Student Council also arranged to have Mr. Stephen Galatti, Director General of the American Field Service, as speaker for an auditorium program March 16. Neighboring schools were invited to attend as the program was directed at encouraging student exchange programs among other schools.

BI-LINGUAL GROUP'S AIM IS PROFICIENCY

"Parlez-vous francais?" That's what you hear a lot of in French Club.

The meetings this year were held on the first Wednesday of every month, with Mrs. Bernice Hillegas, French teacher and sponsor of French Club, on hand to answer questions and sternly reprimand students for speaking that foreign language — English. As officers the members elected Saralee Allen, President; Gene Hensel, Vice-president; Joyce Lockhart, Secretary; and Dick Chalfant, Treasurer.

The main requisite for gaining membership in French Club is being able to speak French — naturally. Students must have had two years of French or must be in the process of taking 2nd year French.

The purpose of the Club is to give the students that are able to speak French a chance to speak freely together and also to encourage the study of foreign languages.

PEDIGOGUES OF THE FUTURE

Although regular meetings were not held by the Future Teachers of America, the purpose of the organization — to become acquainted with modern teaching methods — has been actively carried out.

The members this year were Donna Smith, Eleanor Winkelman, Dorothy Wendel, Dona Gemmer, David Gerdes, and Roland Smith. Answering their many questions about the teaching profession and advising them was their sponsor, Miss Florence Weiford.

Each of the members has observed classes at an elementary school and assisted the teacher in teaching these classes. Donna Smith helped in the second grade at Central School, and Roland Smith and Eleanor Winkleman observed classes at Central. Roland assisted the fifth grade arithmetic class, while Eleanor observed the teaching methods of the sixth grade English teacher. All of the members agreed that their experiences gained while assisting the classes have been very valuable in helping them to learn more about the profession which they intend to make their life's work.

KLINE AND BUZZARD GUIDE SCHOOL'S LARGEST CLUB

"Dreams do come true." This was the theme of District 2 Convention when the Sunshine Society celebrated its Ruby Anniversary of forty years. Ida Armone, a young woman from India and a student at Goshen College, spoke on the theme "Knowledge Is Power." The climax of the day was a tea at which all delegates and past officers were honored guests. Mrs. Floyd Lofland Sr., first president, and Susanne Schilling, present president of Sunshine, cut the cake. Many alumnae and past officers attended with their daughters.

The spirit and traditions of Sunshine continue over the years. To become a Sunshine Officer or a committee chairman is a coveted honor. This year our president had as her cabinet, Jane Guhl, Vice-president; Ann Myers, Treasurer; Jean Ann Coates, Recording Secretary; and Suzanne Chalfant, Corresponding Secretary, with Miss Alice Kline as sponsor.

In September an impressive candlelight initiation service was conducted by these officers. Many mothers shared in this experience and attended the tea given in their honor afterwards.

Sunshine Easter services have been conducted by the Sunshine Officers in co-operation with the Hi-Y officers and the Ministerial Association for the past 30 years. The services are held in the High School auditorium with music by the high school choir.

The Gales committee continues to keep up the twenty-five year tradition of the Easter egg bonnet sale. A total of $136 from this and the Holy Week free will offering was sent to the Riley Hospital Fund and Nurses Scholarship. One girl from each district receives a cash scholarship of $400. Norma Lockhart and Julie Sowerwine are co-chairmen.

Mrs. C. O. Porter is sponsor of Mary White Guild with Mary Jo Poehler as chairman. For years this committee has had charge of Holy Week services and May Baskets for faculty and shut-ins.

The Craft Committee meets for sociability and to learn handicrafts. Mrs. Wayne Miller is the sponsor, with Marty Lendin, our Swedish Exchange student, as chairman.

The Social Service Sunbeams spread sunshine with parties at the county farm and baskets to needy families. Miss Edith Hanson is the sponsor, and Rosalyn Wiley is chairman.

Jo Ann Kriegbaum and Janet Rice assigned the Big and Little Sister and supervised "Greenie" day.

M. M. S. sponsors the informal Halloween Dance, the formal Sweetheart Dance, Peanut Week, and the style show concluding Peanut Week. Nancy Weesner and Linda Ware, with the kind interest and business supervision of Mr. Lowell Buzzard, led this group through a successful year.

KNOW-HOW FOR OUR BENEFIT

One of the busiest, most efficient, and certainly one of the most important divisions of education at H. H. S. is the Audio-Visual Center.

Students serve as period supervisors to see that films are shown as scheduled. In addition to time given during school hours, many of these supervisors perform helpful services after school hours.

Skills are developed in the operation of motion picture, filmstrip and slide projectors, tape recorders, phonograph players, sound systems, and stage equipment.

With the extensive stage facilities, the services of several boys are required for each stage production. They handle curtains, lights, and sound for religious services, auditorium programs, special productions such as the Revue and Junior Varieties, and many outside activities that use the auditorium.

The handling of the sound system at Kriegbaum Field and the Community Gym is also part of the audio-visual service to the school.

Awards are made on the basis of years of service. This year Everett Walters received the only gold pin, for four years service to the Center. Other seniors, receiving silver pins for three years service were Donald Nall, Larry Blackford, and Bill Coates. Major letter awards, for at least two years service at the end of the junior year, went to Fred Teddy, Paul Chambers, and Mike Hahnert. A minor letter was awarded Kenneth DeVoll for one year service.

VOX POPULI

WVSH, "The Voice of the Schools of Huntington," first went on the air on January 1, 1950, and has continued broadcasting regularly since then. One of eight such stations in the state at present, WVSH was at the time of its first broadcast the second public school station in Indiana.

A large part of the equipment has been given to the station by graduating classes of Huntington High School – the 10 watt transmitter was given by the class of 1950, the auditorium sound system by the class of 1952, and the console by the class of 1954.

The primary purpose of WVSH is to provide radio material as an aid in classroom instruction. Broadcasting all major sports events of the high school both at home and away, providing city election returns, and reporting on all fund campaigns are some of the ways the station serves the community.

WVSH operates approximately twenty-five hours a week – four hours on school days plus special event broadcasts. The Saturday morning record request program "It's All Yours" is a special feature on the station.

The radio workshop classes help students develop a more discriminating taste for radio and television programs as well as provide an opportunity for training for those who wish to continue in the field of radio later on.

An FM station with a 10 watt transmitter, WVSH is located at 91.9 megacycles on the radio dial.

THESE STAND OUT

The Rotary Club of Huntington selects a student from Huntington High, Huntington Catholic and Huntington College to attend its luncheon held Tuesday noon of each week.

The object of Rotary is to stress the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and in particular to foster and encourage the following:

1. High ethical standards in business and professions — recognizing the worthiness of all useful occupations and the dignifying by each Rotarian of his occupation as an opportunity to serve society.

2. The application of the ideal of service by every Rotarian to his personal, business and community life.

3. The advancement of international goodwill through a world fellowship of business and professional men united in the ideal of service.

The Junior Rotarians for the month of March were sent to Cincinnati to attend a symposium on world affairs.

Students from Huntington High School who were Junior Rotarians for the school year 1955-56 are:

September, Paul Stewart; October, Kent Owen; November, John Wygant; December, Jerry Dolby; January, Hoyt Brown; February, Jack Flaugher; March, Peter Strodel; April, Bill Coates; and May, Gene Hensel.

Competent Assistants

Just as the head supervisor in a factory has foremen to supervise the workers, Mr. Burke, our shop instructor, uses capable assistants to help run the woodshop.

For the purpose of helping to supervise the students, then, Mr. Burke appoints an experienced boy to act as foreman of the woodshop each month.

Evidence of the skill and patient workmanship is shown in the annual display of end-tables, desks, beds, etc., all made by these students.

Each month the appointed foreman is given the title "Foreman of the Month" at a dinner given by the Huntington Foremen's Club.

The foremen this year were: Steve Olinger; Art Stonebraker, Robert Lohr, David Casper, Jack Flaugher, Neil Stonebraker, David Gerdes, Harold Campbell, and Kent Knight.

So that we may be better

Boost those Vikes! Literally the aim and purpose of the Booster Club is to do just that. The organization provides printed programs for the convenience of the fans and promotes attendance at away football and basketball games by sponsoring buses.

The membership in Booster Club is held at the number 45. As seniors graduate, freshman students who have shown an active interest in school activities are picked by members of Booster Club to fill the places left by the graduates. This method of selecting membership is begun early in the freshman year with a get-acquainted party for all freshmen.

This year, as a special campaign, a goal, "Two buses to Burris," was set up. The goal reached, two busloads of Viking boosters traveled to Muncie for the basketball game with the Burris Owls.

The officers of the organization under the sponsorship of Mr. George W. Moreland were: Gene Hensel, President: Lee Baker, Vice-president; and Jack Flaugher, Secretary-treasurer.

Curiosity leads us on

One of the most interesting phases of student life at H. H. S. is the annual Biology Club initiation. Doing the war-dance of a Belgian tsetse fly, wearing an onion around his neck, or kneeling countless times to recite a bit of degrading ingeniousness — this is the price a student wishing to enter Biology Club must pay.

Of all the race of homo sapeins only those having taken Biology and passed with a "B" average are eligible for the club. Meetings under the direction of Mr. Glenn Hummer and Mr. Dale Ware were held the 3rd Thursday of every month at the school.

Special guests such as doctors, college professors, etc. were speakers for these meetings and spoke on particular phases of science.

The high point of the year is the annual 2-day trip. This year the group went to Elkhart where they were conducted through Miles Laboratories then on to Chicago to view the cyclorama.

Officers were: Jerry Holtrey, President; Norma Lockhart, Vice-president; Jean Carroll, Secretary; and Joan Burkhart, Treasurer.

ONLY THREE WORRIES: BUDGET, COPY, AND

We all like to receive our yearbooks at the end of the school year, and spend many hours pouring over them, However, not many of us realize the amount of time and effort the staff expends in the preparation of the book.

Combining their talents to produce the 1956 Modulus were co-editors Carol Abbott and Peter Strodel.They passed judgement on the work of all other members of the staff.

Norma Lockhart, the business manager, spent her time keeping the books. It was up to Norma to bring us out "in the black."

The general management of the Modulus Review was entrusted to Nancy Weesner. She saw that every aspect of the Review was letter perfect.

Marna Emley, as copy editor, was responsible for all copy going into the yearbook. She handed out assignments to staff writers Jean Carroll, Mara Jane Carter, Janet Floyd, Jo Ann Kriegbaum, Saundra Lee, Cynthia McClure, Sara Miller, Karen Pratt, Lota Rose Slater, Sondra Terrell, Janet Veatch, Linda Ware, Edith Winterholter, Susanne Schilling, and Rosalind Howett.

Dave Arlington capably performed his role as sports editor. Gathering material and writing sports copy, together with Jean Carroll and Karen Pratt, he was responsible for a large part of the book.

Norma Geist had the trying job of composing the index. Much patience was a necessary requirement for this job.

The circulation manager was Saralee Allen. She was assisted by Suzanne Moffit who will assume the role next year. They took subscriptions and saw that everyone who wanted a copy of the book got one — that is, if he had the money.

The advertising staff was composed of Betty Chesterman, Sharon Clements, Duane Kilty, Gvido Lemke, Sally Perrin, Waneta Pinkerton, and Marjoria Stickler. Efficiency in collecting ads was a necessity in helping to finance the yearbook.

One of the most important parts of a yearbook, the photography, was taken care of by Melvin Sanders and Bob Kaltenmark. They took the pictures, developed them, and printed them.

Sallie Crews, Clare Ann Schnitz, and Carol Winter were our typists. These girls prepared the copy to be sent to the printer.

Mr. Moreland was again the capable advisor who encouraged the staff in their efforts to produce the best Modulus yet and to do so in the allotted time. Thanks to him, for we believe we have accomplished this task.

We of the 1956 Modulus staff have endeavored to produce a yearbook which you will remember and keep always. We hope you like it.

MIRROR, MIRROR ON THE WALL . . .

During the past year at Huntington High School we have had three reigning queens. They were: Miss Judy Powell, Modulus Queen; Miss Ann Myers, Track Queen; and Miss Joan Burkhart, Senior Queen.

Her Highest Majesty, Queen of the 1956 Modulus, earned the title by selling tickets to the Modulus Revue in March. Judy Powell set a record in ticket sales second highest in the history of the Revue. Not without competition, however, for each Modulus Queen must compete with her sellers against other candidates. Carole Beerbower, Jackie Brown, Lynn Hegel, Joni Neal, and Doris Story were also candidates and contributed greatly to the financial success of the Revue with their ticket sales. Judy as well as her competitors were Juniors as only Juniors are permitted to be candidates for Modulus Queen.

As Track Queen our team chose Ann Myers, Senior at H. H. S. Unlike most queen contests which are based on popularity,beauty, or personality, both Modulus Queen and Senior Queen are not actually chosen, but compete actively with other candidates and earn their title on the basis of ticket sales. Track Queen is the one exception to that precedent at H. H. S. She is chosen by the track team. Ann reigned along with the other Central Indiana Conference Queens at the Conference meet at Peru.

One of the top honors connected with the activity life for Senior girls is the high office of Senior Queen. Reigning during this year's play, "Arsenic and Old Lace," was Joan Burkhart. Joan with Janice Chambers and Marjorie Stickler who were also candidates for queen, supervised the entire advanced ticket sales for the play. Their efforts with the help of all the sellers made the play a fitting finale for the Seniors.

SHOWBOAT'S VISIT

"There comes the Showboat!" Like the appearance of the famed showboat many years ago along the banks of the Mississippi the showboat docking in Huntington for three days, March 22, 23, 24 brought a promise of musical enjoyment and lots of fun for all.

Also like the early showboat, the finished product was only a three-day result of weeks and weeks of work — first the try-outs, the elimination, then the constant practice, and finally the production nights when the 1956 Modulus Revue changed from a hopeful dream to a successful reality.

After a year's absence from the Revue the orchestra under the direction of Mr. Cloyde Slater received a warm welcome. Also included were the traditional, but always new and different dance choruses, a number of skits, solos, duets, and other musical numbers by the sextet, double sextet, quartet and new Swing-Choir.

Ship captain and Master of Ceremonies, Paul Stewart, kept the audience informed but not prepared for the interesting, comical and unexpected proceedings.

The Revue owed its success to Mr. George W. Moreland, director; Mr. Cloyde Slater, musical director; Mr. Maurice Imhoof, skit director; and Nancy Weesner, manager. The decoration and construction of the scenery was capably done by Miss Verna Oyer and her assistants. Also much deserved credit must go to the curtain-pulling, light-dimming stage crew and finally to the Queen candidates and their sellers for bearing up the financial end of the Revue.

The presentation of the Queen candidates was made each night by Nancy Weesner, Carol Abbott, and Norma Lockhart respectively.

Various parts of the cast and behind-the-scenes groups were responsible for the choreography and script.

After the third successful night the Showboat pulled up anchor, cast off from Huntington and a very weary crew vowed "never again."

WITCHES AND WARLOCKS ON ALL-HALLOWED EVE

In an atmosphere of hushed stillness, with predictions of ghosts and goblins, couples entered the Masonic Temple on the night of October 29, 1955, for the annual Halloween Dance. In order to reach the fantasy world of the ballroom, the couples were forced to thread their way through an entanglement of hanging moss which created a weird effect. The decorations, cleverly done in third dimension, with moss hanging from the ceiling, sent an air of eerieness over the dancing couples. The backdrop, featuring two large grotesque masks, and the walls, adorned with moss and various Halloween masks, made a perfect background for the enchanting music which was furnished by Jimmy Stier's Combo. For the exchange dance a unique method of pairing off couples was used. Each girl drew a miniature mask on which was written her partner's name.

The dance, under the direction of Mr. Lowell Buzzard, was sponsored by M.M.S., a division of Sunshine Society. Chairman and co-chairman of the dance were Nancy Weesner and Linda Ware, respectively. The committee chairmen were as follows: Susan Hudson, decorations; Mara Jane Carter, chaperones; Jean Ann Biehl, tickets; Joan Burkhart, publicity; and Sallie Crews, orchestra.

The Masonic Temple presented a colorful background for the 1956 Sweetheart Dance on February 4. Decorated around the theme of Raggedy Ann and Raggedy Andy and other toys, there were scattered over the walls jack-in-the-boxes, dolls, balls, and blocks. The backdrop was ornamented by a red and white heart with a Raggedy Ann and a Raggedy Andy doll mounted in the center. The traditional heart was decorated with ruffled red and white crepe paper and small pictures of the two dolls.

Preparing for the dance and deserving much of the credit for its success were the chairmen and their committees. Nancy Weesner and Linda Ware as chairman and co-chairman of M.M.S. with the supervision of Mr. Lowell Buzzard and Miss Alice Kline had charge of the dance. They chose the following committees and chairmen: decorations, Carol Abbott; tickets, Norma Lockhart; orchestra, Phyllis Fluke; publicity, Carol Keehn; and chaperons, Shirley Guthier.

The highlight of the evening came at 11:00 when the president of the Sunshine Society, Suzanne Schilling and her date went through the heart followed by the other couples.

Who is the happy warrior?
Who is he that every man in arms should wish to be?
—It is the generous Spirit, who, when brought
Among the tasks of real life hast wrought
Upon the plan that pleased his boyish thought.

FOOTBALL

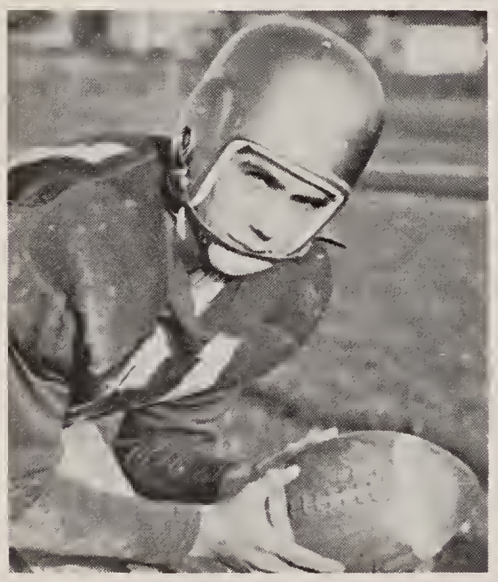
Coach Bill Williams



Kent Knight.

The Huntington Vikings of 1955 had a successful football season with six victories, one tie, and only three defeats. The season opener was played on the Norse gridiron against the Elkhart Blueblazers. It was an extremely warm evening, making it difficult to play a good game. It was rough going all the way as all first games are. Huntington made two touchdown passes and one running touchdown. Near the end of the game the penalties against the Vikes proved harmful as Elkhart came back to tie the game. The Vikes were unable to make another touchdown, turning the game into a final 19-19 deadlock.

In the same week the Norsemen traveled to Marion and lost to the Giants 25-13.

The Wabash Apaches were the Vikes next opponents. They met on Kriegbaum Field where the Vikings captured a 15-0 decision.

On the next Friday the Vikes saw action again at Warsaw. The cinder field was hazardous, and Warsaw stayed with the Vikes most of the way. However the Norsemen pulled away at the end for a 21-6 victory.

For the third Central Indiana Conference game and the same amount of conference wins the Vikes defeated the Hartford City eleven with eight touchdowns three of which were touchdown passes.

It was a cold, rainy night for the next game. The Vikes traveled to Ft. Wayne to play the Central Tigers. Because of the muddy field and cold weather playing was difficult for both teams. The Tigers came out victorious winning 20-13.

The scene was grim for the Huntington fans the first half of the Rochester game which saw the Vikes trailing the Zebras. But the Norsemen came back in the second half for a 20-12 victory.

The following Tuesday the Vikes met Columbia City here. The Norsemen came out on top of a very one-sided score 22-0.

During the same week the Vikes went to Plymouth for the decisive Conference battle. Plymouth was leading the conference, and Huntington was second. The game would decide the winner of the conference. The high hopes of the Vikes and the fans were soon extinguished with a heartbreaking slide-by of 7-0.

The next Wednesday the Vikes went to Peru to emerge triumphant with a 27-6 victory.

THIS IS THE STUFF THE VARSITY IS MADE OF

The Huntington B team finished their season with a more victorious record than that of the Freshman squad. The season opener saw the Peru B team cut down to size by the future Vikes 7 to 6, but not without putting on plenty of pressure. The future Vikes next sailed through rough water when they played Marion's "small" Giants, but they came through with another victory 14 to 6. The future Apaches from Wabash had a surprise coming to them when they were scalped 34 to 0 and then once again were beaten 14 to 6. The only defeat of the B team came in the final game when they were beaten one touchdown by the Warsaw B team.

A few of the B team players who showed potential ability for next year's varsity team are Jim Weber, Tom Sands, Larry Stell, Hubert Tackett, Donnie Passwater, and Jerry Hastings.

Also this year there was a Sophomore-Freshman team composed of members of both classes. The young Vikes played three games and came out on the short end winning one game and losing two. They started and ended their season with defeats. The Sophomores and Freshmen opposed the Airdales of Hartford City in their first game, but the "Dogs" proved to be too much competition and the "small" Vikes were beaten 6 to 12. In the second game Huntington just reversed the score and topped New Haven 12 to 6. Central of Fort Wayne defeated Huntington in their last game 27 to 6.

The final record for the B team was 4 wins and 1 loss and for the Sophomore-Freshmen team 1 win and 2 losses.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

THEY SAY WE'RE TOO YOUNG

Spirit and determination were high among the Freshmen this year from their first game with Peru until their last with Warsaw just as it has been with the former "greenies" in the past years. However, this year's season was probably the most unsuccessful on record or at least for the past five or ten years. Bob Harris, Mike Thomas, Phil Wasmuth, John Beerbower, Bill Winkleman, and the Winkleman twins, Dick and Paul, tried very hard and probably to the best of their ability to make another team bow to them just once, but they came out of the season on the short end of the deal all five times.

They were beaten their first game by Peru, 7-0; their second try was even worse with Marion winning over them, 13-0; the third time was almost a success but Wabash nipped them by a mere point making it, 14-13; and a couple of weeks later the "green Apaches" from Wabash beat them again, 18-0. At the fifth and final game the Warsaw "greenies" dumped the Huntington "hopefuls" to the worst defeat of the season, 36-6.

Although they came out of this season defeated every time, varsity football coach, Bill Williams said that they are good material for the Sophomore team next year and then on to the Varsity team, but they will need a considerable bit more practice and experience.

WE BEAT THE "BIG THREE"!

This year Viking fans were destined to be treated with a combination of speed, accuracy, determination, and above all, teamwork. The Vikes as a team proved that being down is one thing and being out is another.

As every team has one weakness or another, the Vikings were no exception. When away from home the basket seemed to have a lid on it, but once back in friendly Community Gym, the Vikes had considerably less trouble knocking off that lid. The Vikings have many things to be proud of this season, one being that they defeated none other than arch-rivals North Side, Central, and South Side of Fort Wayne, something never before accomplished.

This year's roster was composed of only two graduating seniors, but these two men each did a magnificent job for the Vikings. The smallest of the two was Jack Flaugher, standing 5 ft. 11 in. Jack, playing his second year of varsity ball, showed versatility throughout the season, displaying a fine one-hand push-shot and a very accurate jump-shot from anywhere close to the key. Leaving with Jack this year was Art "Butch" Musselman who also had a fine one-hand shot, plus a hard-driving layup. Butch has also played his second year on the varsity. Back next year, but unable to play because he has had his four years eligibility due to a switch in schools, Kenny Law has also won his second "H" for the Vikes this year. Kenny displayed a very beautiful hook-shot which came through for the Vikes many times during the season. The remaining nine men were all Juniors. Larry Handwork displayed very good defensive ball.

Dick Chalfant proved to be a good point-getter during the early part of the season. Jim Myers took over where Dick left off and became very valuable later in the season. The Mitchell brothers, Bill and Dick proved to be a very good pressing duo in our wins against the Ft. Wayne schools. Charlie Johnson showed good rebounding strength for next year, as did Scott Hosler who was able to hit from the side very well with his one-hand shot. Lee Baker and Jack Weller saw some action this year on both the varsity and Scyldings teams. These nine men will be back next year to play some very fine ball.

The Vikings opened their season with a close decision over the Columbia City "Eagles" 64-61 with each of the starting five in double figures. In their next outing the Vikes dropped the Warsaw "Tigers" 63-60, behind an 18-point output by Musselman. A last second shot by the "Zebraa" from Rochester dropped the Vikings on their third try, despite a gallant effort by Chalfant with 23 points. The growl of the Peru "Tigers" was not too fierce as the Vikes quieted them with a 10 point deficit 56-46. The next foe, the Alexandria "Tigers" were too wild for the Norsemen 50-41. The Vikings were almost scalped in their bid to capture the Apaches as they tiptoed by Wabash 61-60. A 22 point contribution by Butch and another 20 by Chalfant couldn't quite make up the difference in the free throw department as the Airdales of Hartford City outlasted the Norsemen in a closely fought ball game 70-65. A sizzling hot night by Muss with 30, saw Huntington put the lock on the cage against the Bluffton Tigers in a down-to-the-wire battle 67-66.

The 1955-56 hardwood season saw the return of a familiar face. After graduating as a Viking in 1947, Ivan Wilhelm has taken over the reins as head coach of Huntington High School. Because of his ability to get along with the boys and his knowledge of basketball, he brought the Vikings to victory over some highly rated ball clubs. During his second "freshman" year, this time as mentor, he compiled a 17-7 record.

All those who have played, managed, and assisted him during the season, plus the entire student body can say he has done a fine job in his initial year as coach.

Playing an important role in the behind-the-scenes activity at the ball games were the four student managers — Bill Coates, Richard Simon, Jerry Dolby, and David Gerdes. These fellows though not a part of the playing squad were indispensable in the capacities of keeping equipment in repair, taping weak ankles, cleaning up dressing rooms, and, most important, in encouraging team spirit.

Above:
Coach Ivan Wilhelm

Up to this point, the Norsemen had a not too impressive 5 wins and 5 loss record. Next on the agenda was the annual Holiday Tournament which matched the Vikings against Ft. Wayne North Side and the Wabash Apaches against the Peru Tigers. Huntington had little trouble capturing the Redskins by a very one-sided score of 64-43 in the first afternoon game. In the second game Peru downed Wabash 61-65, and in the evening consolation game North defeated Wabash 70-36. The championship game paired previously beaten Peru against the Vikes, and they again had little trouble defeating the Tigers by 9 points, 56-45.

Starting 1956 with a good omen, the Norsemen traveled to Marion to play the Giants on a floor on which they seemed unable to win. But they whittled the Giants down to size 68-61 with Flaugher leading the way with 21 points. The Vikes left their shooting arsenal home as the Elwood "Panthers" ran off with a one-sided victory 66-52.The Yellow Jacket's sting was hardly felt as the Vikes downed Decatur in a high-scoring game, 80-70. Butch Musselman led the way with 26. Arch-rival Central was the Norsemen's next foe, as they defeated the Summit City boys 50-47, in a rather uneventful game. With Musselman again leading the way with 28, the Vikings beat a good Tipton quintet 72-62. As underdogs, Huntington played host to a highly state ranked South Side Archer team. With Wilhelm's little men putting on the pressure in the form of an all-court press the Vikes came out on the better end of a 61-57 score. Jack Flaugher led both teams with 23 points.

"57" is another year

The Logan-Berries jumped out to a 20-0 lead and stayed out in front to win 94-72. With Flaugher dropping in 23, the Vikings came up with a win over the Plymouth Rockies 72-56. The Norsemen ended the regular season at home undefeated with an 82-75 win over the Auburn Red Devils with Jack Flaugher hitting a season high for individual scoring for the Vikes with 32 points.

Huntington avenged a loss suffered last year in the sectional with severe drubbing of the Township "Bearcats" by a score of 89-73 in their first 1956 sectional game. The Norsemen's next tournament foe were the Andrews Cardinals whom they had little or no trouble getting by in a run-away game 90-48. The Ramblers of Huntington Catholic had considerable difficulty in rambling on as the Vikes put up a barrier with big Kenny Law hitting for 24 to down the Rams 72-57. The Vikings, as favorites, entered the championship game against the Clear Creek Bulldogs. With Musselman and Flaugher leading the way the Norsemen kept ahead by a slim margin during most of the contest. With but a few seconds remaining to play the Bulldogs, behind little Lowell Stouder, took the lead by 4 points. The Vikes came back with a basket but of no avail, for a quintet of fine playing Bulldogs came out on top 78-76. The Bulldogs were the first team to defeat the Vikings in Community Gym during 1955 and 56.

The preliminaries to the varsity games were played by the Scyldings under the coaching of Oscar Naab. At times they seemed to have plenty of potential but at others seemed lost in the rush. They opened their season with a victory over the Columbia city B team 34-29. Their next outing resulted in defeat at the hands of Warsaw 46-37. The Scyds dropped their next two opponents Rochester and Peru respectively 38-33 and 45-39. Alexandria then came out on top 40-30. The club stopped Muncie 35-27 with Lee Baker and Jerry Cowin hitting 10 apiece. They lost a very close 41-40 decision to Wabash despite Hubert Tackett's effort of 14 points. The boys then took six straight defeats at the hands of Hartford City 49-35, Bluffton 39-35, Marion 50-34, Elwood 67-42, Decatur 40-38, and Ft. Wayne Central 42-30. Hungry for a long sought victory, the Scyds squeaked past Tipton 32-30, with Cowin leading the way with 14. However, they soon tasted defeat again, being set back by South Side 42-36 and Logansport 52-35. With Jim Stringfellow hitting 19 points, the Scyds defeated the Plymouth subs, 42-38. The futures lost their last game of the season 35-34 despite Kenny Buzzard's 16 points. The Scyldings showed plenty of ability for next year in Jerry Cowin who came through with some high scoring evenings, Kenny Buzzard who also turned in some high scoring games, and Tom Sands. Hubert Tackett, Ronnie Chapin, and Jim Stringfellow also showed ability throughout the season at Various times. The team as a whole was very weak on defense, thus causing a few unnecessary losses. Although the Scyldings ended with an unimpressive record of 6 wins and 12 losses, that doesn't describe the whole picture of ability. They showed plenty of determination and a good team spirit.

The Huntington High School Freshmen opened their 1955-1956 basketball season with a loss handed to them by Marion McCulloch 41-34. Behind the scoring of Bill Watrous with 21 points, the greenies emerged victorious over Warsaw 45-42 in the second season game. They thoroughly drubbed Pierceton 43-27 in their next outing and Martin Boots of Marion also took the same treatment being set back 49-26. Their next two games resulted in victories over Wabash 42-35 and Huntington Township 49-33. After five wins the future Vikings ended up on the short end of a 54-33 score dealt them by the Logansport freshmen. Reeling back they lashed a 48-33 defeat on the Peru squad, only to be beaten in their next try 43-34 by Mississinewa. Martin Boots upset the freshmen 33-31 despite Watrous's effort of 13 points. Huntington lost their tourney when beaten by Concordia 28-22 in the championship contest. The greenies handed the Chester freshmen a 49-38 setback behind Mike Thomas. Wabash came out on top of a close decision 42-38, and then Huntington reversed the tables and upset Marion McCulloch 45-39. The freshmen were then beaten by Warsaw 46-44, whom they had defeated earlier in the season. The season finale ended in a victory over Mississinewa 43-41. With much needed practice, some of these boys will turn into fine varsity material. With a season record of ten wins and ten defeats, the club seemed to have determination and ability for future hardwood years.

"H" Club

An organization made up of H. H. S. athletes, the "H" club is composed of boys who have received a letter in any of the three major sports — basketball, football, or track.

The purpose of the club is to further the ideals of good sportsmanship.

A season favorite sponsored by "H" Club is the "Old Vikes versus New Vikes" basketball game. This game between this year's basketball team and next year's Vikings concludes the basketball season. It was originally a contest between the varsity ball club and the high school faculty, however, the present system has been in effect for several years and has proved to be a successful competitive match. This year's ball team showed that their efforts with the "round ball" had not been futile when they defeated the New Vikes by a score of 62-59.

The officers were: Jack Flaugher, President; Art Musselman, Vice-president; and Doug Cravens, Secretary-Treasurer.

Cheerleaders

As the last Scylding cheer went up at each basketball game, the three Viking cheer leaders — Sally Perrin, Jean Ann Biehl, and Jackie Tackett — ran across the floor leading the Viking players and setting the cheering block into motion.

All three girls were Seniors this year with Jackie and Jean Ann completing their second year as cheer leaders, having been Scylding cheer leaders in 1954-55, and Sally completing her third year with two years as Viking and one year as Scylding cheer leader.

Cheer leaders are chosen yearly by the student body after a demonstration given by all those competing. Organizing these "try-outs" is Miss Carolyn Reynolds.

Scylding Cheerleaders.

Understudy the pros

These familiar phrases marked the beginning and end of each Scylding game. Organizing and leading the Scylding fans in their enthusiastic cheering were — Judie Burman, Polly Palmer, Ann Ade, and Judy Musser — the Scylding cheerleaders. Dressed in reversible red and black corduroy skirts with black sweaters these girls added zest and color and a semblance of order to the Huntington cheering section during Scylding games. Selected by the student body at the beginning of the year, the Scylding cheerleaders spent much time and effort in composing new yells and revising old routines in order to add flavor and newness to the cheering.

Cheering Block. Howling Hundred

Swaying back and forth or jumping up and down, the Cheering Block yelled their way through another wild season of basketball.

The block, this year consisting of 132 members, is not restricted to girls. However, though boys are not ineligible there were none blending their voices with the girls this season.

They met for half-hour after-school practice sessions in community gym every Wednesday afternoon. Learning new yells and revising old routines, they lent much spirit and color to the ball games. For although most people attend a ball game to watch the game being played, the H.H.S. ball games would have lost much of their zest and enthusiasm if the red-sweatered, black-jumpered trio and their band of vocal Viking boosters in red and black skirts had not been present to voice the sentiments of the Huntington fans.

Miss Carolyn Reynolds sponsors the Cheering Block also in addition to being advisor to the cheer leaders.

On March 29, the Viking track squad, riddled by graduation and plagued by bad weather, hopefully opened their 1956 season. With only three seniors to carry the load, Coach Williams had to rely on juniors and sophomores for the depth needed in dual and triangular meets. The coach's hopes proved well founded, as the greatly underestimated Norsemen obtained a convincing victory over Decatur and Columbia City. It was a team victory with six Huntington men and both relay teams taking blue ribbons.

In like manner the Vikes downed Wabash, South Whitley, and Lafontaine in a quadrangular meet the following Wednesday. Fighting a stiff wind, most of the runners managed to improve their speeds considerably.

In their first dual meet of the season the Norsemen defeated Mississinewa with Huntington men taking honors in 7 of the 11 individual events.

Spurred on by the momentum of their three former victories, the "red and black" racked up a one-sided triumph over Huntington county rivals. The final tally showed that Huntington with 85½ points had topped the combined efforts of Warren, Roanoke, Huntington Township, and Jefferson.

The formerly undefeated Vikings tasted their first defeat at the hands of Marion. The triangular meet ended with Marion well out in front, followed by Huntington and Wabash.

On April 21 a determined Viking squad arrived at Culver Military Academy to compete in the first annual Culver Relays. Competing in the meet were Hobart, Culver, South Bend Riley and Adams, Chesterton and Huntington. From the first event Hobart held a lead that finally won the meet for them. This was by far the toughest meet of the season for the Vikes as they finished fifth in a field of six. Although no Huntington man finished better than third, many speeds were improved due to good weather, track, and competitive conditions.

The following Wednesday the Norsemen ventured to Peru where they shared honors with the host. The meet ended in a tie with Hartford City taking third.

In their last effort to improve their speeds before the Central Indiana Conference meet, Huntington competed in the second annual New Haven Relays. Here the Vikes placed third in the field of seven being topped by Concordia and New Haven.

After a month and a half of preparation, the Vikes hopefully entered the most important meet of the entire season, the Central Indiana Conference meet. However from the first event the strain of added competition began to show. The Vikings left the meet with a ninth place as Muncie Burris edged out Tipton for the trophy.

Throughout the season many of the places vacated by 1955 graduates were capably filled by juniors and sophomores. We were very strong in the 440 and distance events. Jerry Dolby, Dick Chalfant, and Jim Weber were regulars in the quarter as Pete Petrie, Bill Mitchell, Tom Sands, and Stan Bippus held down starting positions in the distance events. Varsity hurdlers included Charles Johnson, Jim Stringfellow, Scott Hostler, and Jerry Hastings. Representing Huntington in the field events were the following: high-jump, Kenneth Buzzard, Myers, and Larry Handwork; broad-jump, Wayne Humphrey and Buzzard; shot-put, Jack Weller and Walter Hunnicutt; pole-vault, Ronnie Chapin and Myers. Varsity sprinters were Humphrey, Handwork, Stringfellow, and Ronnie Foor. The Viking's twice-defeated relay team included Petrie, Mitchell, Chalfant, and Dolby, while Foor, Humphrey, Kenneth Law, and Handwork held starting slots in the half-mile relay.

Of course much of the success of the team may be attributed to the fine coaching of H. B. Williams and Oscar Naab.We have hopes that the underclassman strength displayed this season insures good future Viking Track teams.

Always pulling for the team, encouraging the players, keeping the equipment in repair and good order, and in general playing errand boys for the main team, are those very important persons, the student managers.

The managers for the baseball team this year were Cary Ambrose and Robert Rittenhouse. The fellows — Cary a sophomore and Bob a junior — proved themselves an important part of the team as they displayed their usefulness at both games and practice sessions.

BASEBALL, OUR NEWEST SPORT, TRIES ITS WINGS

Despite a misleading 1-3 record, the newly organized Viking baseball squad showed signs of a greatly improving club. Only last year this popular game was revived at Huntington, and already it has begun to take root.

Opening the season in a game with North Manchester, the Norse found themselves shut out with a five to nothing score.

Not a very encouraging beginning, they next journied to Elwood where they were again defeated by their conference rivals to the tune of 6 to 4.

With two defeats behind them the Vikes faced another conference team, Rochester. Here, the greatly underestimated Norse came through with a barrage of runs, to lick their opponents 10-2.

For their last game of the season the Vikes played Warsaw. Again the opposition proved to be too much, however, as the Norsemen came out on the short end of a 4-2 score.

Coach Wilhelm's squad consisted almost entirely of underclassmen. On the mound the efforts of hurlers, Dick Chalfant, Tom Pyle, and Bill Watrous were called upon regularly. Behind the plate was Hubert Tackett. In the infield Scott Hosler was at first, Stan Bippus at second, John Stell and Fritz Williams at third, and Jack Weller at shortstop. Outfielders included Tom Smith, Larry Overholt, Rex Solloway, and Stan Robinson.

With a more experienced team Coach, Ivan Wilhelm, hopes to be back next year for a better win-lose record. Since there were no Seniors on the team, everyone will be back for the 1957 season with the promise of an experienced and enthusiastic squad.

Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I —
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference."

Freshman Officers

The Freshmen coming into H. H. S. as newcomers this year found much to interest them. However, after several weeks of confusion caused by new teachers, new classes, and new freedoms, the Freshmen finally settled down to a comparatively calm year. As class officers they chose: (Standing Above) Mike Thomas, President; Bill Marks, Vice-president; Barbara Schell, Secretary; and Larry Dailey, Treasurer.

Sophomore Officers

The Sophomores were excited about getting their rings this year, but relaxation followed acquisition. Many of the class "lost" their rings shortly after they were delivered.

In the spring the class elected new officers and started preparing for a busy Junior year.

Junior Officers

Leading the Junior class in a successful selling campaign were the class officers: (Standing Above) very busy Treasurer, Jean Coates; Secretary, Dede Williams; Vice-president, Bill Mitchell; and President, Jim Gordon.

At the close of the year after building up a bank account, the Juniors turned their energies toward the traditional task of being host to the Senior class at a well-planned Junior-Senior Reception.

Junior Honor Society

Using service, character, and leadership as standards, eight Juniors were elected to a place of achievement in the Junior Honor Society. They were Robert Petrie, Cynthia McClure, Jean Carroll, Lee Baker, Philip Young, David Gerdes, Dede Williams, and Jean Coates.

Junior Honor students compose 5% of the Junior class and are chosen out of the upper 25% by the vote of students and teachers. Congratulations on their accomplishment.

Senior Officers

Worrying over class finances and struggling to put out the best play ever, the Senior class officers put forth much effort in making our Senior year at H. H. S. a pleasant and successful one. Our officers for this biggest, busiest, and most memorable year were as pictured: Jerry Dolby, President (upper right); Peter Strodel, Vice-president (upper left); Arthur Stonebraker, Secretary (lower left); and Joan Burkhart, Treasurer.

Senior Sponsors

Invitations, caps and gowns. Senior play, and class gift — all a part of the very important senior year — presented many headaches to the class advisors. Choosing a class gift, always a problem, was no easier this year. However, the stage lights, finally chosen, proved their worth. Also, for the Senior Play, one of the high points of the year, much patient advising and planning was required from the senior sponsors — Mr. B. P. McKay and Mr. Delmar Weesner.

Valedictorian

Paul Stewart was named valedictorian of the 1956 graduating class. During his high school career Paul majored in English, Social Studies and Mathematics. Activities he has participated in include Senior Play Cast, (his famous charge will never be forgotten), Student Council, Masque and Gavel, Hi-Y, and DeMolay. He was also class president during his Junior year and Junior Rotarian as a Senior.

Elected to both Junior and Senior Honor Society, Paul was also a member of K. B. F. This fall he plans to enter DePauw University to which he received the Rector's scholarship.

Salutatorian

Kent Owen as salutatorian of the 1956 graduating class gave the salutatory address in response to the presentation of the Bibles at commencement.

During his four years at H. H. S. Kent majored in English, Social Studies, and Mathematics. Among the numerous activities he was active in, were Speech, DeMolay, Masque and Gavel, Student Council, Senior Play Cast, French Club, and Hi-Y; he was also sports director of W. V. S. H.

In both his Junior and Senior years Kent was a member of Honor Society and of K. B. F. as a Senior. He plans to enter Amherst College in Massachusetts this fall.

Row I: Norma Geist, Susanne Schilling, Eleanor Winkelman, Marna Emley. Row II: Paul Stewart, Kent Owen.

K.B.F. The cream always rises

Consisting of the upper five per cent of the graduating class, Kiwanis Builds Forever is based wholly upon the scholastic rating of students throughout the four years.

The purpose of the award is to encourage and promote outstanding scholarship among all students.

Those receiving the award this year were traditionally the guests of honor at a May luncheon given by the Kiwanis Club of the city.

Paul Stewart, Kent Owen, Eleanor Winkelman, Marna Emley, Susanne Schilling, and Norma Geist have been given the K. B. F. awards.

Senior Honor Society.

For seniors one of the results of four years of hard work, and persistent effort is the honor of being elected to Senior Honor Society. Chosen from the upper 15% of the class scholastically members are determined by their scholarship ranking and the vote of teachers and students. Each year these students are honored by the Rotary Club at a dinner. The nineteen chosen this year were: Paul Stewart, Susanne Schilling, Ann Myers, Saralee Allen, Kent Owen, Eleanor Winkelman, Joan Burkhart, Marna Emley, Nancy Weesner, Norma Lockhart, Sarah Miller, Peter Strodel, Norma Geist, Carol Keehn, Shirley Guthier, Susanne Farrar, Rose Ann McIntire, Linda Brubaker, and Dorothy Wendel.

WE HAD A MESSAGE TO DELIVER

sents its premiere of Joseph Kesselring's "Arsenic and Old Lace." The usual "What if I forget my lines" and "If I walk out on that stage I'll faint" resounded backstage, but everyone portrayed the true theatrical ability in their possession and composed themselves enough to give an exceptional performance.

The time of our play is about 1941. As the plot unfolds, the audience receives an inside view of the strange but lovable Brewster family and their mysterious cellar. Although this is primarily a comedy, dramatic sequences lead to a very well-rounded presentation. Our cosponsors, Mr. B. P. McKay, director and Mr. T. D. Weesner, business manager, deserve sincere thanks for their untiring efforts and patience throughout rehearsals, which were many times very tedious.

We, the Class of "56", will always remember "Arsenic and Old Lace" as the "very best" and definitely think that our efforts spent were well rewarded!

It is eight o'clock, May 2, 1956. The Huntington High School Auditorium dims its house lights, and the dubious expressions on the faces of the audience changes to anticipation as the curtain raises and the Senior Class pre-

RECEPTION "55". "BLUES IN THE NIGHT"

"Looking at the world through a pair of blue-tinted glasses" might have been the theme for the 1955 Junior-Senior Reception. Everything pointed out one theme — The Blues. Mobiles characterizing the various Blues Songs were suspended from the ceiling; life-size musicians were silhouetted against the windows: and, enhancing these decorations, was the banquet hall itself hung with dark blue cellophane.

The program began with a few words by Peter Strodel, toastmaster, followed by the Invocation by Hoyt Brown. The welcome was given by Paul Stewart and the response by Jim Carlson. The dinner was interspersed by the reading of the prophecy by Carol Abbott and Norma Lockhart and the reading of the will by Carolyn Webb and Janice Watrous.

Following the banquet was the dance with music furnished by Jimmy Stiers and his orchestra.

Gifts presented to the sponsors by their respective classes were as follows: Senior sponsors: Mr. Patterson, chafing dish; Mr. Brown, fishing rod; Junior sponsors: Mr. McKay, luggage; Mr. Weesner, 35 mm. camera.

Committees and chairman were: Dance, Nancy Weesner; Prophecy, Carol Abbott: Program, Gerda Rasche; Invitations, Dorothy Wendel; Dinner and Dining Room, Susanne Schilling; and Decorations, Saralee Allen.

RECEPTION "56". DANCING IN A CANDY WONDERLAND"

The traditional Huntington High School Junior-Senior Reception was held at the Masonic Temple on May 17, 1956.

Upon entering the Temple the first glimpse was a sight of Candyland. Tables centered with candy lollipops, balloons covering the ceiling, and a Candyland castle on the backdrop contributed to the effect.

At the head table with their dates were the toastmaster, Jim Gordon; Dick Mitchell, who gave the welcome; Jerry Dolby, who gave the response; Dede Williams; and Jean Ann Coates, who gave the invocation.

The program for the banquet was presented by a marimba player, Roger Hill, of Fort Wayne.

Traditionally gifts are presented to sponsors by both classes. The Junior class presented to their sponsors; Miss Wilson, a figurine; and Mr. Diffenbaugh, a lounge chair. As Senior gifts for the sponsors a projection screen was presented to Mr. Weesner and an automatic coffee maker to Mr. McKay.

Committee chairmen were: Menu, Jane Guhl; Decorations, Sue Keifer; Dance, Jean Carroll; Clean-Up, Dick Mitchell; Program, Dick Chalfant; Invitations, Dede Williams; Tickets, Judy Abbott; and Chaperons, Robert Petrie.

Concluding the evening was the dance with music furnished by the "Spotlighters" from Indiana University.

Below: The Reverend Paul Rasche, Pastor of the Evangelical and Reformed Church, and speaker for Baccalaureate.

"Into my heart's treasury
I slipped a coin
That time cannot take
Nor a thief purloin —
Oh, better than the minting
Of a gold-crowned king
Is the safe-kept memory
Of a lovely thing."
"The Coin"—Sara Teasdale

We Remember

all the things they were, all the things they are . . . we will never forget.

Opal Lusch Ritchie

Deceased January 14, 1956

Mrs. Ritchie was born in Allen County, but had been a resident of Huntington nearly all her life. She graduated from Roanoke High School, attended Huntington College, and graduated from Indiana University.

Mrs. Ritchie began her teaching career at Horace Mann School in the city and was at the time of her death head of the History Department at Huntington High School.

Her death not only left a vacant spot in the History Department but also in the hearts of students and faculty members at Huntington High.

Frederick M. Cussen

Deceased November 19, 1955

Mr. Cussen, born in Huntington and a life-time resident of the city has been custodian at Huntington High School for the past 20 years. During World War II he served 2½ years in the army then resumed his work as custodian.

Mr. Cussen was a sports fan and could be seen always at the H. H. S. ballgames as an interested spectator.

Known and loved by students and faculty alike, the sudden news of his death saddened the entire High School.

Emma Ford Kline

Retired 1955

Miss Emma Kline, Home Economics Teacher at Huntington High School retired after 38 years of teaching.

Miss Kline, born in Huntington, and a graduate of H. H. S. and of Purdue University, began teaching at Lancaster.

Returning to her old Alma Mater as instructor, she taught in the Home Economics Department. She has been active in 4-H work through the years and taught Dietetics to the Nursing staff at the Huntington County Hospital.

We, the student body, take this opportunity to thank Miss Kline for her services of teacher, advisor, and friend as we have known her at Huntington High.

Beatrice Irene Brown Patterson

Retired 1955

After 28 years of language and speech work at Huntington High School Mrs. Beatrice Patterson retired in 1955.

Mrs. Patterson was born in Huntington, and was graduated from H. H. S. and from Indiana University. She then taught in the county for four years beginning her teaching career in Bippus.

At H. H. S. she began as a full-time Latin instructor and later went into the speech department. Our present speech and dramatics club, Masque and Gavel, is a result of her work in that field.

To Mrs.Patterson, then, we extend our appreciation for the fine work done among us and our regret that she is no longer with us.
